WASAINGTON, Aug. 22. HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTO-MAO, Aug. 20th .- Our new position, firmy established across the Petersburg and Weldon Railroad, seems to be a source of great jealousy to the rebels, and deperate efforts have been and probably will be made to dislodge us.

Yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock they nade another ferocious assault on our line, 2d Division, 5th Corps, beyond the railroad and going across. The 3d Division, with cne Brigads of the 4th, on the extreme Colonel Hartsborn. General Crawford 2d Division, 5th Corps, beyond the milroad and going across. The design of the enemy seemed to be to sever General Warren's slender communications with the main army, and then to entangle and defeat him among the forrests

To this end, strong demonstrations were made against our whole line, accompanied by a wild charge upon our extreme ight, and another upon the centre.

The enemy were coming down upon his right flank with a shout. The General himself, in trying to rally his men and reorganize his line, received a slight shell wound in the foot and a Minie-ball scrutch across the breast. One of his staff, Lleutenant Clark, of the Second Regulars, had his arm badly shattered, and Orderly Donofan was struck in the breast, and the bearer of the Division colors lost his horse. It was a trying moment. General Wilcox coming to the rescue the enemy, though surprised at this new opposition, persisted in their attempt to swing round our right flank.
